ONE CEREMONY UNITES FIVE PAIRS OF HEARTS

Matrimonial Club of Ten Wedded All at Once.

ARMSTRONG, Mo., Dec. 26.-Ten hearts were made to beat as five by Rev. N. B. Taylor last evening, when he performed one ceremony for five couples.

The young folks belonged to a matrinonial club, which they had organized themselves. Without letting their outside friends know of their intentions, they agreed to be married at the same

Each prospective bridegroom took diner with his intended bride. After the meal the five couples repaired to the minister's house. There they formed a circle around the parson, clasped hands, and took the vows prescribed by the

Only a few persons besides the contracting parties were present, enough to sign the certificates as witnesses. Those who were married were:

Kelly McCune and Lucy Doughe William Warford and Stella Kirby. Cal Winn and Mae Belle Roberts hn Palmertree and Sallie Hearne.

POSED AS GOVERNOR BECKHAM, OF KENTUCKY

Stranger Deceives Guests at Florida Hotel-Telegram Brings Discovery.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 26 .- A dispatch from Miami, Fla., one of Flagler's resorts, says a man calling himself J. C. W. Beckham, and posing as governor of Kentucky, was arrested there yesterday. The man strived at Miami last week. It was soon rumored that Ken-tucky's governor was there. He displayed a tel-egram alleged to be from Secretary Cortelyou, apparently by accident, making an appointment o meet the President. After this he was deul aged with invitations and made many friends. A few days later he sent a dispatch to the sheriff of Clinton, Ky., ordering the death sen-tence of James Kelly be commuted to life imprisonment. This he let be known, much to the credit of his reputation for mercy. A few days later the Clinton telegram was returned to open his telegrams. The contents of this one made the manager rather suspicious. Under-standing that the "governor" had been borowing money he at once swore out a warrant While surprised, he did not lose his nerve, bu At the jail he refused to make a statement. The
